Golf in Schools in Full-Swing

The Colorado PGA Golf in Schools Program is a collaborative effort between the founding associations of the Colorado Section PGA, Colorado Open Golf Foundation, Colorado Golf Association, Colorado Women's Golf Association and Rocky Mountain Golf Course Superintendents' Association. GIS introduces school age children across the state to the game of golf and the valuable life skills it teaches.

This spring, we're lined up to be in several schools in our community:

- John Amesse Elementary
- Lena Archuleta Elementary
- Highpoint Academy
- Kearney Middle School
- Highline Academy

- Adams City Middle School
- Florida Pitt Waller K-8
- KIPP Middle School
- Omar D Blair K-8

PGA Jr. League

PGA Jr. League is for kids of all skill levels 13 and under. It is a great way to bring family and friends together around a fun, engaging, and welcoming, team oriented golf experiences. Participants focus on learning the game of golf and applying it in a friendly and supportive team competition environment that encourages mentorship, builds confidence and promotes sportsmanship.

Players compete in up to six nine hole matches throughout the summer. Each of the six matches has a roster in which there are three team of two to three players per team.
